At The Palm Beach Show
Presented by Florida Design Magazine

To further represent the design category of offerings at the 2025 Palm Beach Show, producers are collaborating with Show Sponsor, Florida Design Magazine, to introduce a unique experience known as "design!", a branded, dedicated section on the show floor featuring a full complement of modern & contemporary furniture, accessories, lighting and other design related elements. Booth and vignette exhibits will curate the work of local interior designers, manufacturers and bold trend-setters using the Florida Design brand as inspiration.

Visitors will enjoy live presentations, discussions on design and architecture, and insights into the future of interior design in Florida. The Florida Design-branded installation will highlight trends from both local and international markets, elevating the importance of this dynamic segment.

Explore a preview of the curated exhibitors featured in the inaugural design! section and join us at the 22nd Annual Palm Beach Show, February 13–18, 2025, at the Palm Beach County Convention Center to experience this year's design! showcase in person.

Andrew Libeck (Chico, CA)

Andrew Libeck's passion for glass art is a lifelong romance—he creates with love, and you fall in love with his creations.

Inspired by his grandfather, a master carpenter, Andrew inherited a deep appreciation for craftsmanship, design, and detail. Fascinated by glass art from an early age, he declared in the 5th grade, "I'm going to be a glass artist." Over the past 20 years, Andrew has honed his craft under the mentorship of renowned artists like Sterling Powell and James Nowak, mastering techniques in layering colors and creating dynamic patterns.

Now, in his Northern California studio, G-Town Hot-shop, Andrew channels gratitude and presence into every piece he creates. His travels across the globe—spanning continents from Asia to Africa and beyond—fuel his inspiration. For Andrew, the magic of glass art lies in its ability to capture emotion through patterns, shapes, and optical illusions, forming timeless works that are limited only by imagination.

Lillian Gorbachincky Atelier (New York, NY)

design! 328

Lillian Gorbachincky is a modern-day Renaissance woman—an artist, designer, inventor, and 360 creative. Drawing inspiration from nature and self-exploration, her work explores the balance between natural and man-made forms.

Her visionary approach expands the art world through experimental designs, including whimsical glass and metal sculptures, dreamy silk paintings using washi-inspired techniques, infinity mirrors, colorful cast art mirrors, and collectible furniture and lighting.

As a classically trained singer, Lillian's creative process becomes a synesthetic experience: "Singing while I sculpt or sketch transforms my connection to music into a visual portal, unlocking new ideas to bring to life."
